We've got mounds of sounds so buy them by the pounds or ounces Countless
are the pistons in this underweight V-8
With a force like a tornado
We're greater than the sum of our parts, AAAAAHHHHHH,
it starts
We arise from the peat moss
The inconceivable rapper brings the Special to the metal And the artist, formerly known as Curious Gave birth to J Guevara,
the wierd scientist
Dig the recital, it had to be that our anatomy
was vital
The skinnee apparatus brings the ivy to the lattice
And the bigguns are enraptured by the people with thenconch
The melodic symbiotic like the Geefel to the Gonk

Animal or mineral or something in between
The organic machine

We've got mounds of sounds
so buy them by the pounds or ounces
Countless
are the pistons in this underweight
V-8
With a force like a tornado
We're greater than the sum of our parts,
AAAAAHHHHHH, it starts Hold up,
let me just make this comment

We be universal like Haley's Comet
From our birth in the cradle of the earth Where we spread civilization cross the nation bringing life to the dead through poetry

from zero gravity to subterranean
The rhyme in my mind to the brain in your cranium This one's for my people's who come straight from the womb
With a box full of rocks and a bag full of boom

Animal or mineral or something in between

Stumpy, J Guevara, Mel and Special J

We've got vines of rhymes, we got roots of beats
We got kegs of pegs
over magma heat
We've got engineers
and their instruments blessed with supernatural intelligence
We've got hammers, spanners,
springs
and coils Through 'em all into a pot and bring it up to a boil
So come down Skinnee crew
Time to get the job done
We don't need a holy grail, cause we've already got one.

Animal or mineral or something in between
