With depravity,
I break lots of gravity Blast past the atmosphere to the last frontier
I go boldly through space and time
The sky's the limit, but the limit isn't the sky
I break orbit by habit,
I ignite satellites and leave rings round the planets
A flying ace like that beagle, nevertheless this alien remains illegal Cause their discovery don't cover me the immigrants been left in the cold to grow old and disintegrate Discriminate against the distant and disclaimers,
Cause small minds can't see past Uranus
When I shun their race cause that's just a phase and my odyssey runs in 2001 ways And I can see clearly now like Hubbell shoved off the shuttle, here's my rebuttal
It's a planet.

Who do you represent?
I represent the smallest planet
A tourney in this journey versus those who tried to ban it.

If you don't agree go see interplanet Janet Cause the sun is star like Pluto is planet.
So lend me all ears
and let me state my case, about all the types of satellites we must embrace Cause like parents'
great-grandparents, this planet was an immigrant,

to deport it's an offense.
It's an upstanding member of the solar system
Abide the laws of Earth and make it a victim.
Of Proposition
107,
When Pluto spawns a moon it will apply to the heavens.
A dandy like Judas of a chariot
If you demote this boat remote to a goat
It's like taking ET's custody from Elliot, support yours
clearly put cause, simply put

Pluto is a planet. Pluto!
Pluto is a planet. Pluto!
Pluto is a planet. Pluto!
Pluto is a planet. Pluto!

Do it for the children,
if not for yourself.
Pluto is a
