You, you left my crying last night
With what you had to say
You, you gave me all the love I needed
Then you took it away
Now you're gone, I'm burning up inside
I, still love you baby
I can't deny it, oh no
And now I'm calling to say
That you left something behind

Chorus:

You left a hot spot burning in my heart baby
You left a hot spot burning up, you gotta make it stop
Repeat (2x)

I, I thought our love would be forever
And I just don't see
Why, why did you have to go and do it
Walk away from me
I'll go on but
I can feel the pain in my heart
Growing stronger
I can't explain it oh no
And now I'm calling to say
That you left something behind

Chorus

Oh I love you so
I need you desperately
Why'd you have to go
Please come back to me
Now you're gone, I'm burning deep inside
I, still love you baby
I can't deny it, oh no
And now I'm calling to say
You left something

Chorus (2x)
