Louisiana, in the 'Bucket Of Blood'
That was where they met, his eyes were like mud
'Cause his whole life he had nothing to see
But he held on to her and he found peace

He'd take her walking down by North Shore
And he always told her we're meant for much more
We outta go off somewhere so pretty
And then a storm came and fucked up the Crescent
City

And then they were left with nothing
She said nothing's not so bad
It could be the best time that we ever had

Every single day I can feel chip, chip, chipping away
If only we could run, run from these swine
Oh baby, we are wasted in this time, oh yeah

Someday if we'll try I know we could fly, fly, fly, fly
We shine like gold
Oh baby, we were born to be adored

And I can feel them staring in my face
Like they're dig, dig, digging me, digging a grave
It's like these people are dead they're so weak
And someone dug them up and gave them words for their lips to beat

And then they were left with nothing
She said nothing is not so bad
It could be the best time that we ever had

Every single day I can feel chip, chip, chipping away
If only we could run, run from these swine
Oh baby, we are wasted in this time, oh yeah

Someday if we'll try I know we could fly, fly, fly, fly
We shine like gold
Oh baby, we were born to be adored

Every single day I can feel chip, chip, chipping away

If only we could run, run from these swine
Oh baby, we are wasted in this time, oh yeah

Someday if we'll try I know we could fly, fly, fly, fly
We shine like gold
Oh baby, we were born to be adored
Baby, we were born to be adored
Oh baby, we were born to be adored
