[MURS]

It's the end of the beginning So I thought it only right that I bring along the motherfuckers I started this shit with 2003MG Melancholy Gypsys
MURS, Scarub, Eligh

[Eligh]

To do it right in life is just an angle breakin' Make or break myself in the matter of moments under discretion
With lessons upon the forefront, My life is in the breeze Makin' my knees squeak beggin' my soul to please speak
Universal guides then listen, trouble sometimes blister
my vision
But I've enlisted my mind for the full mission
Not bullshittin' on a stoop with a stool pigeon Talkin' about "What'chu gonna do in the future?"
"Movin' up the ladder with ass kissin'."
I'm on my last mission in life
Dumping through the middle grounds like a junkyard dog in a prowl
Guarding my bow throwin' in the towel when it's right Until then I'm walking towards the light with my sword drawn from a fight
Doing everything bad that happens has an opposite reaction
Keep my feet on traction, until my goals in life are right in front of my face
And I can smell, touch and taste what I've been workin' for
I'll be walkin' out the front door

[Chorus 2X]

It's a done deal, do it 'til it's done
'Cause the movement don't stop 'til the rising sun
It's a done deal, let's have a little fun
'Cause the movement don't stop 'til the rising sun

[MURS]

I'm talking done deal, closed case Ain't no time for looking back on the road you take You gotta claim your spot, nobody hold your place
Ain't no time to preach about time you chose to waste
You gotta mold your fate, hold your weight
All my peoples NY to the Golden Gate
Who know the rap about the breed and the gold is fake How we all supposed to eat when they want the whole cake?
Niggas want all the dough, but never learn to bake
So they rise too fast and they burn the plate
But I'm concerned with fate, and watch the turns I take Know this world is affected by the moves you make
So I ain't gotta stop moving just to prove you fake Just spit these real raps to get this real estate
So I can steal your fanbase and steal your date
Won't have a soul mate until I meet my soul mate

[Chorus 2X]

[Scarub]

It's like I'm type of walking towards heaven through hell Everyday it's something new, I'll make it through; so many fell off
Whoever knew it cost so much to clutch a dream
In between the thumb and the index lies a small space for mistakes
The indication for almost Sometimes you hold it until you face to magnify how close you came in life to something That you measure up to
I know that pain like my enemy Slap my ass when I'm born, and will hold my hand when it's the end of me
The lessons learned in between these two extremes feed me energy
I keep it moving with the force of a crane where the steel ball's just swinging at the end All it takes is one pen to tap these words out like Morse code over your eardrums
To speak to your spirit
Intoxicate you with my speech to crash crew like drunk driving
Whether it be freestyling or stage diving I float over these weak rappers
Like volcanic islands, I got a fire in me

[Chorus 2X]
