I've been to many places, always searching for your love
Between those thousand faces, it was you I was thinkin' of

Then I tried to see you again
Was too shy to talk you babe
But if I could have a second chance
I won't let you go

Everytime I think of you I hope it's not too late
Everytime I think of you I can hardly wait
Everytime I think of you I hope it's not too late
Everytime I think of you I can hardly wait
To get to you

If there's somethin' that I am missing, it'd be your smile
And if you're out there and listening, I would talk to you for a while
I will try to see you again
I won't be shy to talk to you babe
But if I could have a second chance
Then I won't let you go

Every time I think of you I hope it's not too late
Every time I think of you I can hardly wait
Every time I think of you I hope it's not too late
Every time I think of you I can hardly wait
Every time I think of you I hope it's not too late
Every time I think of you I can hardly wait
Every time I think of you I hope it's not too late
Every time I think of you I can hardly wait
