Get out of my life now don't come home
Do what you want to do on your own
Find yourself another novelty
Besides the one and only they call me

Never in my life have I been through
Anything as bad as being with you
So before I throw the flag away
You can do if you wish bid me good day

And if by chance I should just happen to see you again
I'd probably be so surprised I'll climb a tree
And yell up why me, me

And if by chance I should just happen to see you again
I'd probably be so surprised I'll climb a tree
And yell up why me, me

Get out of my flat now don't come home
Home, home, home
