Throughout my whole life
When nothing goes right
I turn to those who care
If you're in trouble burst of a bubble
It's good to know they're there

My heart goes out to
A child molested
And then subjected
To more abuse
One thing for certain
Rope from a curtain
I know what I would do

I'll give you romance
Led with a slow dance
If that's what it will take
I'll move the heavens
Six feet or seven
Depending on it's weight

We have a problem
With medication
Too many patients
Now about
One thing for sure is Cancer will cure this
Of that I have no doubt

To think the past and all it has Enabled us to do
We still can't change a light bulb without Someone there to help us to

You'd think now wouldn't you
Concert and summit
Yet all we've done is to achieve
Enormous ratings for T.V. stations
And much to their relief

You are my whole world

If not my whole world
Then in what world are we
I have a good sense
Of what in one sense
Makes perfect sense to me

The years have flown by
There's no denying
And yet in flying
Look what we've made
It's time to notice
The smell of roses
Before on us are laid
