Remember when you talked about the days ahead
And how we need to measure up
To what's been said
I was measuring myself again last night

Know what, you're right

How can you be so dismissive of the press
Saying they're incapable of truth no less
Did they not inform us of Iraq's great might

Know what, you're right

Rudimentary lessons on guitar are fine
Learning how to smash it is my favourite line

Gonna see a band we used to love to bits
Dressed up in the clothes we wore
When they had hits
You think at my age I'll look a sorry sight

Know what, know what, know what, you're right

Know what, you're right

Surely if a planet like ours does exist
Every politician should be placed on this

Like a marathon I'm sure I could
I've been eating them for years
They do taste good
You think I'd be last home even on a bike

Know what, you're right

All of us who think we know a thing or two
Ought to bear in mind one more is just a few

Remember when you talked of
"Won't get fooled again"
Said it was the greatest record

Made by them
I said surely that must be
"Here comes the night"

Know what
