You'd never think to look at
You'd never think to look at
That building there is where there
Used to be trees

You'd never think it,would you?
You'd never think it,would you?
That building there is where there
Used to be trees

That building there is where there
That building there is where there
That building there is where there

Used to be fields

You'd never think to look at
You'd never think to look at
That building there is where there
Used to be trees
Used to be trees
