Miss my love today
As I miss the stars that shine above
Telling me one day
My love will come to me again

Miss my love I'd say
Is the only thing that I can do
I just can't live with someone new
Reminding me of her

She said before she left
That she would return to me
Although it may take quite a while
I know

That she'll come back
And once again the time to fall in love
Will still be mine
Till then I'll wait in morbid company

Miss my love I do
Just as one would miss both day and night
Waiting here alone is not right
But what else can I do?

Miss my love today
As I miss the stars that shine above
Telling me one day
My love will come to me again

She said before she left
That she would return to me
Although it may take quite a while
I know

That she'll come back
And once again the time to fall in love
Will still be mine
Till then I'll wait in morbid company

Miss my love I do
Just as one would miss both day and night

Sitting here alone is not right
But what else can I do?

Sitting here alone is not right
But what else can I do?
