Mum, the kettle's boiling
Daddy, what's the time?
Sis, look what you're doing
Can't you see the baby's crying?

Tell your uncle Tony
Helen wants to know
Did he get the letter?
That she sent a week ago

All in all what could be nicer
Than two people young at heart
Looking forward to the future
That together they will start

When you think of all those people
Who are left out in the cold
All because they never dreamed
That they'd be written off as old

Mum, the kettle's boiling
Dad, 'ere what's the time?
Sis, look what you're doing
Can't you see the baby's crying?
Can't you see the baby's crying?
