Hey baby what's that you say
I didn't know that you felt that way
You got a problem let me solve it
You can be my world baby I'll revolve it

I like the way you wear your dress
You have a style cut above the rest
Your kiss is sweet, so warm and tender
Anything you want baby I will render

But there are times I think you know when
You never listen to reason
If there's one thing about you that I can't stand
You never listen to
You never listen to
You never listen to reason

Come on baby don't be so mean
Give me some of that old routine
I like the one where you spin the bottle
Really love the one with nothing on at all
I don't don't know if I should tell you this
But every time that we start to kiss
I get so hot under the collar
Anywhere you lead baby I will follow
But there are times I think you know when
You never listen to reason
If there's one thing about you that I can't stand
You never listen to
You never listen to
You never listen to reason

Come on baby don't be so childish
Look me in the eye when you speak
You know I worship the ground you walk on
Even when I'm out walking in my sleep

I like the way you wear your dress
You have a style cut above the rest
Your kiss is sweet, so warm and tender
Victory is your baby I surrender
But there are times I think you know when

You never listen to reason
If there's one thing about you that I can't stand
You never listen to
You never listen to
You never listen to reason

You never listen to
You never listen to
You never listen to reason
