I had my suspicions baby
I didn't say nothing 'cause I be trippin' right
I put all my trust in you
The ears you used to kiss don't hear you anymore

How could you be getting around me
Getting around me
Why'd you have to play me like that baby
That's all I want to know, you tell me

And why were you getting around on me
Sleeping around on me
I would never do you like that baby
And I'm the last to know

Now everybody knows
That you have a girl on the side
Now everybody knows, yeah yeah
That you're not doing me right
Why'd you have to be the kind that won't love faithfully
I don't want no man with a girl on the side

You know how much I love you baby
You'll never find a girl
Who gives you more than me
You threw away the best of times

When you strayed away and left me lonely
'Cause I was not your one and only
Didn't I please you like you wanted
How could you be untrue and throw it all away

Now everybody knows
That you have a girl on the side
Now everybody knows, yeah yeah
That you're not doing me right
Why'd you have to be the kind that won't love faithfully
I don't want no man with a girl on the side

There ain't gon' be no coming around my door
You can stay right where you are
Because you'll never get my love anymore

How could you be getting around me
Getting around me
Why'd you have to play me like that baby
That's all I want to know, you tell me

And why were you getting around on me
Sleeping around on me
I would never do you like that baby
And I'm the last to know

Now everybody knows
That you have a girl on the side
Now everybody knows, yeah
That you're not doing me right
Why'd you have to be the kind that won't love faithfully
I don't want no man with a girl on the side

Now everybody knows
That you have a girl on the side
Now everybody knows, yeah
That you're not doing me right
Why'd you have to be the kind that won't love faithfully
I don't want no man with a girl on the side

How could you be getting around me
How could you be getting around me

Now everybody knows you, girl
I don't want your love, I don't need your love
I will be fine, I won't spend my time
Alone, alone, alone, alone I won't be alone
