When you move away
Do you still feel alive?
You're always waking up alone now, alone
When you've let me down
I don't know what to do
Choke down your suffering
Biting off more than you chew

Chorus
You're not so old
You know you're not wrong
Taking hold, turning you on
I've locked myself together now
Collider

When you walk away
You don't walk fast enough
You always slip into the sidewalk, alone
Any other day you'd tell me where to go
But now you're wondering
Why you're giving up all that you know

Chorus

When you're looking at the stars
You're getting blinding headaches,
You recognize the scars
Could you help me find the way
I'm disappointed now when you tell me not to look that way
Well, you know you've got a lot to explain

When you move away
Do you still feel alive?
You're always waking up alone, alone
When you've let me down
I don't know what to do
Choke down your suffering
You're biting off more than you chew

You're not so old

You know you're not wrong
Taking hold, turning you on
I've lost myself forever now
