{One two three}

I've been waiting around all night
Your warm kiss is on my mind
A piece of you, this is all I've got
The whole damn thing isn't what I want

And I've been waiting around here all night long
Holdin' onto these memories, until they come undone
My hands are tied
My hands are tied

Telephone is ringin' by my bed
I pick it on up and the line goes dead
I splash summer water on my face
Clears my mind I'm out of this place

And I've been waiting around here all night long
Holdin' onto these memories, until they come undone

My hands are tied
My hands are tied

Nerves are frayed and I've had enough
I'm a lot afraid that it'll hurt too much
And I can't seem to stop at all
My pain wore through waiting for your call

And I've been waiting around here all night long
Holdin' onto these memories, until they come undone
My hands are tied
My hands are tied

Won't you 'round here all the time?
Just can't seem to shake you off my mind

My hands are tied
My hands are tied
My hands are tied
Oh, yeah
