"Hold Me Down"

So I guess I must have just been dreaming
When I thought I heard myself say, "No"
Anyway it looks like no one heard me so here I go

'Cause when you're in the company of strangers
Or just the strangers you call friends
You know before you start just how it's going to end

So remember when those doors swing open
And all the drinks are passed around
Anytime the pickins look too easy, hold me down

I can't remember why I like this feeling
When it only seems to let me down
Soon I find I'm searching for the exit from the ground

And if I think the room is turning faster
Then I think the music is too loud
By then I've lived another broken story to let me out

So remember when those doors swing open
And all the drinks are passed around
When half the party moves into the bathroom, hold me
down
Or if you're at the tail end of the evening
And Dr. Feelgood comes around
Anytime the pickins look too easy, hold me down

Down, if I want that part
Down, if I've gone too far

Well I guess I must have just been reeling
When I felt myself begin to fall
I realize I'm bounding down the hallway, off the walls

And if my bed was standing in the corner
I could just fall into it right now
And know that I'd just be staring at the ceiling going round and round

So remember when those doors swing open
And all the drinks are passed around

When half the party moves into the bathroom, hold me
down

Or if you're at the tail end of the evening
And Dr. Feelgood comes around
Anytime the pickins look too easy, hold me down

Down, if I want that part
Down, if I've gone too far

Oh if I never think the room is turning faster
Then I think hey
