"Every Tim I Fall"

(1) Everytime I fall for your eyes
Like the raindrops fall from the sky
Everytime I hear your name
In this loving game
There is something in the way
your eyes talk to me
Just as if they seem to say
(stay here with me, babe)
Just as if they seem to say
(stay with me)
(1)
All I need is to express it all
My echo listens
When I hear myself confess
(you are my weakness)
When I hear myself confess
(you are my weakness)
(1)
I say, I say, I say
(1) 2 X
(1) Repeat to fade
