I've got emotion
Creeping up on my back.
It's like I can't stop
Because you know what I need,
And I'm hoping that she'll never let me see
The person she has made me now.
Introduce me to the way you move,
Swing those hips around like you know how.
It's going down, baby, down right now.
So call me crazy, but I saved the best for last.

Go on and play it off like I knew you would.
You know you've got me like it's bad.
Would you know if you were wrong? Oh no.
It's like a chain reaction,
The way you put your hands up when you're in the action.
They'll always know.
Shake down baby,
Everybody's crazy.
Shake down, breakdown, oooh.

You complicate me,
You aggravate me,
You act as if we're not alone.
I'll introduce you to this excitement;
I'll act as if we're not alone.
So baby I'm not, baby I'm not,
Afraid that we're just having fun and making love with everyone.
So dance 'round to the beat of the drum,
And know that you're not getting out without the people
you just talked about.

Go on and play it off like I knew you would.
You know you've got me like it's bad.
Would you know if you were wrong? Oh no.
It's like a chain reaction,
The way you put your hands up when you're in the action.
They'll always know.

Shake down baby,
Everybody's crazy.
Shake down, breakdown, oooh.

I like your complexion,
You're so complex.
Work up that reaction,
A sweet reflex.
Your hips move so smooth so use me,
I'm 'bout to lose me.
Cuz this is how it feels when it's up close and real-
I'm a giver, she's a taker.
And when she's done with me and she gets what she needs,
I will never see her later.

Go on and play it off like I knew you would.
You know you've got me like it's bad.
Would you know if you were wrong? Oh no.
It's like a chain reaction,
The way you put your hands up when you're in the action.
They'll always know.
Shake down baby,
Everybody's crazy.
Shake down, breakdown, oooh.
