Watch her inhibitions falling to the floor
Notice how you lock the door
What would you love to do?

Here in this hotel room, together and alone
I want you to put on a show
What would you love to do?
What would you love to say?
What would you love?

Princess, I just wanna witness
Watch you severing that velvet
I won't say the word, say the word

Princess, I just wanna witness
Watch you severing that velvet
I won't say the word, say the word

Watch you in the mirror
The way you touch yourself
Your hips to your fingertips
What would you love to do?

Don't be so impatient
Don't lose self control
I'll make the rules up as we go
What would you love to do?
What would you love to say?
What would you love?

Princess, I just wanna witness
Watch you severing that velvet
I won't say the word, say the word

Princess, I just wanna witness
Watch you severing that velvet
I won't say the word, say the word

Princess, I just wanna witness
Watch you slip right out of that dress
I won't say the word, say the word

Princess, I just wanna witness
Watch you severing that velvet
I won't say the word

Princess, I just wanna witness
Watch you severing that velvet
I won't say the word, say the word

Princess, I just wanna witness
Watch you slip right out of that dress
I won't say the word, no, I won't say the word
No, I won't say the word, say the word
