(the river must flow)

I love you, youre the one that I adore

And no man could love you more

Its like a river that flows to the sea

I need you like the jasmine needs the rain

Let your water cool my pain

Just like a river that flows to the sea

Thru love I will find the meaning of you

All my natral dreams will come true

Its like a river that flows to the sea

Thru love I will find a meaning in life

But the rain must fall down tonight

And like a river that flows to the sea

Oh yeah, the river must flow from me

(the river must flow)

From me

(the river must flow)

Youre a falling star burning in my heart

Ah,ah

Thru love I will find the meaning of you

All my natral dreams will come true

Its like a river that flows to the sea

Thru love I will find a meaning in life

But the rain must fall down tonight

And like a river that flows to the sea

Oh yeah, the river must flow from me

(the river must flow)

From me

(the river must flow)

(the river must flow)

(the river must flow)

From me (the river must flow)

From me (the river must flow)
