"Ugly Man"

Who am i
To the rabble and the wise
Am I just a young and shallow face that years erase
Am I more than that
Oh do they wonder how can i
Bring the world beneath this guise
In the silence of my languished soul
Lies a truth unknown
Oh yes I am
I am just an ugly man
Alone

I work no day with self deception
All that I am
Is one common grain of sand
But the sun does rise for every man alive
And how my heart is clear cause I have from what I do
And I do just what I am

Oh no man is born a starless sky neath his naked hide
Lord yes I am
Maybe Im a lucky man
Inside
