Sometimes you win sometimes you lose
Ain't turnin' back for me and you
Don't look over your shoulder
No time for regrets

You got your demons I got mine
Our paths have crossed at a crucial time
Suddenly we're older
Scared of what's ahead

We were looking for the answers in all the wrong places
But now the chance is knocking on our door
To grab hold of what we been readin' for

It's just a motion away
It's just a motion away
It's just a motion away

No need to wonder where the future lies
It's right before our very eyes
Don't even think it over

Just say yes

We were clinging to some old cliches and old familiar faces
But now they're only shattered dreams
So let's dry our eyes and start away clean

It's just a motion away
It's just a motion away
It's just a motion away

We were lookin' for the answers in all the wrong places
But now the chance is knocking on our door
To open up our ailing hearts once more

It's just a motion away
It's just a motion away
It's just a motion away
