Put the weight on my shoulders
Take the load off of your mind
Cause the headwinds that blow
Will fade away in time

Rest yourself on my waters
Take the lifeline from me
Rise above what has passed
And let yourself be free
I only know what love must bear
Through laden times I will be there
And when your down I'll break the fall
Loose the weight on my shoulders
It ain't no weight at all

I only know what love must do
When fortune cries I'll follow you

And when your down I'll break your fall
Put the weight on my shoulders
It ain't no weight at all

Put the weight on my shoulders
See you star how it shines
Cause they're so many dreams
Left to find

Put the weight on my shoulders
Put the weight on my shoulders
Put the weight on my shoulders
Put the weight on my shoulders
Put the weight on my shoulders
