The river must flow

I love you, you're the one that I adore
And no man could love you more
It's like a river that flows to the sea

I need you like the jasmine needs the rain
Let your water cool my pain
Just like a river that flows to the sea

Through love I will find the meaning of you
All my natural dreams will come true
It's like a river that flows to the sea

Through love I will find a meaning in life
But the rain must fall down tonight
And like a river that flows to the sea

Oh yeah, the river must flow from me
The river must flow, from me
The river must flow

You're a falling star
Burning in my heart

Through love I will find the meaning of you
All my natural dreams will come true
It's like a river that flows to the sea

Through love I will find a meaning in life
But the rain must fall down tonight
And like a river that flows to the sea

Oh yeah, the river must flow from me
The river must flow, from me
The river must flow

The river must flow
The river must flow, from me
The river must flow, from me

The river must flow, from me

The river must flow, from me
The river must flow, from me
The river must flow
