Yeah, you can't be afraid, baby
You can't be afraid to cross that bridge, listen baby

Baby, I can't imagine why you keep sayin'
You think I'm playin' with your heart
I'm tired of them games, I done put that away
Look me in my face, you can see that I've changed

But you still act so selfishly, keep blamin' it on me
When you know you're just afraid to fall
You can't run and hide
We're almost to the other side

You need to stop makin' excuses
For all the wrong you do
You need to stand up, take responsibility
Come on and walk with me across this bridge called love

Love, love, boy, this is love
Don't fall off this bridge called love
Love, love, boy, this is love
Don't fall off this bridge

Baby, I'm so amazed at how you think
It's gonna happen so easily
You gotta work for it, maybe hurt for it
But I swear that it's worth

All the cryin', all the tryin'
Listen to me, you won't loose
This thing we got going on
It's just gonna take me some time

You need to stop makin' excuses
For all the wrong you do
You need to stand up
Take responsibility
Come on and walk with me
Across this bridge called love

Love, love, girl, this is love, love

Don't fall off this bridge called love
Love, love, girl, this is love, love
Don't fall off this bridge called love

Just hold on to what we've got Lady, don't be afraid of me
Don't be afraid of love
We can overcome this fear
We can rock this song right here

You need to stop makin' excuses
For all the wrong you do
You need to stand up
Take responsibility
Come on and walk with me
Across this bridge called love

Love, love, girl, this is love, love
Don't fall off this bridge called love
Love, love, girl, this is love, love
Don't fall off this bridge called love

Across this bridge called love
So let's stop excuses, get to the issues
Across this bridge called love
Across this bridge called love
