I just don't know how to explain how I feel
About our first child
I just, I'm in a loss for words
But here goes, listen

Now you made me the proudest daddy
Girl, I'm at a loss for words
Can't explain the feelings in me
So proud when I heard

That we were having a little baby
Girl, I couldn't wipe off my smile
Heaven went and told the world
That you were having my child
Words can't explain it

Our first born
It's our first, it's our first
Our first born
It's our first little baby

Our first born
It's our first, it's our first
Our first born
It's our first little baby

When you had it something went through me
And it hit my soul, I had no control
This little life was mine
And I'll do anything to protect it
I will never neglect it, I will always stand right there

I'm the daddy, I'm the father, now what that means
Is I will always care for you always
Come on, just say it again
I'm the daddy, I'm the father
I just can't explain how I feel about our first

Our first born
It's our first, it's our first
Our first born
It's our first little baby

Our first born
It's our first, it's our first
Our first born
It's our first little baby

I'm so proud that we share
I am so proud that we share
The most precious thing in the world
That two could love and share

Baby, I love you, yes, I do
Baby, do you feel me baby?
Do you hear me? Do you hear me?

Our first born
It's our first, it's our first
Our first born
It's our first little baby

Our first born
It's our first, it's our first
Our first born
It's our first little baby

Our first born
It's our first, it's our first
Our first born
It's our first little baby

Our first born
It's our first little baby
