You say that comfort is what you need,
Well that ain't nothing to achieve,
You say that pleasure is what you want,
But you will find it in my arm,
I know u feeling, I know u wishing,
I know u feels, But still are women,
To leave my ego, At the door,
So you don't have to cry no more.

[Chorus]

Baby please don't you cry i'll be your lover,
Baby please don't you cry we're starting over girl,
Baby please don't you cry I will protect you,
Baby please don't you cry I'm to the rescue girl in my heart,
Is all you need, oh baby my heart, is yours to keep,
Oh baby my heart, it won't let you down,
I tell you it will always be your own (my heart).
