The world is so cold

Why did you leave me standing there

Alone in my shadow

Looking for your prescence

But it's not there

(Repeat again)

One thing's on my mind

The thought is having you

To have you next to me

Thats where you want to be baby

You're a diamond you're my world

Where did you go baby

How could you leave that night

And leave me all alone

Already the world is so cold

Chorus:

I'm lost and all alone

So down and miserable

Got much good love to give

Alone's no way to live, baby

You made me feel so whole

And now I've broke the bond

I can't believe you're gone, baby

It tore apart my heart

The world is so cold, baby

The world is so cold

leave me)

Alone in my shadow

Looking for your prescence

But it's not there (I've never done anything wrong to you

why did you leave me baby)

The world is so cold (ooh)

Why did you leave me standing there (already ? in my life)

Alone in my shadow (I didn't need no more from love)

Looking for your prescence (Now you've given me ?)

But it's not there

Yes you did

The world is so cold

leave me)

Alone in my shadow

Looking for your prescence

But it's not there (I've never did anything wrong to you

why did you leave me baby)

Repeat again,

The world is so cold

I miss you

The world is so cold

I love you

I don't understand

I never done anything
