Lyrics by Gioia

verse 1

Time flies, there's no point in even asking why
For you and I, this day comes to us as no surprise
The road we're on, splits in two so dreams can carry on Your feeling strong, listen close before we face the dawn

prechorus 1

If you find your world turning cold and empty
Know that there's a place where your safe
If you lose your way and your faith grows weary Find your way home back to me

refrain

I won't turn u out
I won't turn your heart away
I won't turn u out
On your side always

verse 2

You say, time for you to up and fly away
The world awaits, you can't stay here another day

prechorus 2

I wish I could keep you by my side forever
But I have got to face this road alone
So I will never forget all we shared together I won't let them turn your heart to stone

refrain

I won't turn u out
I won't turn your heart away
I won't turn u out
Here for you always

Bridge

You don't have to be afraid
Go ahead and fly away

The seasons are meant to change

You don't have to be afraid
Go ahead and fly away
The seasons are going to change

prechorus 3

I'll be waiting here, with all my passion
I will be your comfort throu the storm
When your world grows angry and you need compassion
You'll always have my shoulder to lean upon

refrain

I won't turn u out, I won't turn your heart away
I won't turn u out, on your side always
I won't turn u out, I won't turn your heart away
I won't turn u out, here for you always

I'll be waiting here, I'll be waiting rightg here
(For You)
I'll be waiting here, I'll be waiting rightg here
(For You)
