Ever been misunderstood, misused, or misled?
Ever knocked on the sky and had it fall on your head?
Well, don't worry 'bout it, don't worry

Ever lost your luggage, your marbles, your house
Or found yourself in bed with Uncle Sam or Mickey Mouse?
Ever been accused of murder on Music Row
Or caught in morning traffic when you really gotta go?
Oh no

Life is funny, life's a mess
Sometimes a curse, sometimes a blessing
Don't worry 'bout a thing
Don't worry 'bout it

Life gets sticky, life can bruise
Sometimes you win, sometimes you're losing
No matter what it brings
Don't worry 'bout a thing

Ever sat yourself down when the seat is all wet
Or see your ex sucking face with a little brunette?
Don't worry 'bout it, don't worry

Ever lost your religion, ever lost your best friend
Or found your last record in the bargain bin
Or been stuck in a divorce like crazy glue Or scraped someone else's gum off the bottom of your shoe? Boo hoo

Life is funny, life's a mess
Sometimes a curse, sometimes a blessing
Don't worry 'bout a thing
Don't worry 'bout it

Life gets sticky, life can bruise
Sometimes you win, sometimes you're losing
No matter what it brings
Don't worry 'bout a thing

Don't worry, don't worry

We all got a little junk in the trunk
And when you're feelin' good as sunk
Remember, everything will be just fine
If I laugh at yours then you'll laugh at mine

Life is funny, life's a mess
Sometimes a curse, sometimes a blessing
Don't worry 'bout a thing
Don't worry 'bout it

Life gets sticky, life can bruise
Sometimes you win, sometimes you're losing
No matter what it brings
Don't worry 'bout a thing

Life is funny, life's a mess
Sometimes a curse, sometimes a blessing
Don't worry 'bout a thing
Don't worry 'bout it

Life gets sticky, life can bruise
Sometimes you win, sometimes you're losing
No matter what it brings
Don't worry 'bout a thing

No no
Don't worry, don't worry

Life gets sticky, life can bruise
Sometimes you win sometimes you're losing
No matter what it brings
Don't worry 'bout a thing

Thank you very much
