You don't know why you want her...
You say it's just your charm dear,
Another road to cross and mend

But do you hear the whispers?
Say, "Oh, see her now
she's just like that rest of them."

I'm only staying because I will wait for love

You say your celibate now,
Try to erase the past
But oh no, you crashed into me
And made your mark.

I'm only staying because I will wait for love.

I don't know what you're doing.
I don't like this much.
But now I see your plan
and now I understand.

I'm only staying because I will wait for love.
