

Girl In A Coma

When yesterday is over
And tonight just began
You sit there in your corner and wish it was the end
But listen here my friend
The story never starts until you break your heart

I know there was a plan beneath the story, too slow
There was a plan beneath the story

But do you know just what it's like?
To fall asleep and no one there to tell you everything is alright

Two souls
One of us
One of us
One of us
Let go
Too bold
One of us
One of us
One of us

When yesterday is over
When yesterday is over
When yesterday is over
When yesterday is over
