So I reached the end of all to bring it back to home and then you reach to Me to freeze the idle breeze
Oh and you couldn't tell a lie you couldn't tell a lie to save your life And I broke the spell again a cross around my hand I took the time to weep
It dropped me on my feet
Oh and I couldn't tell a lie
I couldn't tell a lie to save my life
And you broke his heart again you spit it back to him and then I broke it All the bridge that binds us all Oh and we couldn't tell a lie we couldn't tell a lie to save our lives Bring it back against the wind hold me up to gasp and never let me send And you will fly in the bottle of time Fly butterfly drink your bottle of wine See how high you fly
Oh and you couldn't tell a lie
