So I'm saving all my secrets for a deaf man blabber on I blabber on stare empty at a wall and make it try to sing along carry on I carry on you're shackled all you pain is stiff tattooed lovers they don't like to reminisce keep pictures of the people you once loved in a safe oh in a safe oh no you lost the combination oh no you have the wrong address
scribble names unscramble names oh you're shackled all your pain is stiff I know you're planning your vengeance tattooed lovers they don't like to reminisce who knows what name they're screaming now

blabber on and on and on and on
wrong address
see this world is not just a ball of vagueness you can just bounce off dear Jane, well I wrote this line to say hope you still can recall my name dear Jane, I wish everything is okay oh Jane, forgive all they may say
dear Jane, well I wrote this line to say
