When I look in the mirror I'm not as young as I used to be
I'm not quite as beautiful as when you were next to me
And all the times that I've tried to go out to see if you might be there
I will never get over you, I still got a lock of your hair

Cause when I said that I loved you honey
I knew it from the very start
And when I said that I loved you honey
I knew that she would break my heart
But why, why, why, why

There's a voice in the back of my head
That says you're always going to be alone
Go turn the TV on, turn off the telephone
Cause all the times that I've tried to go out to find somebody new
You make me wish you would just come back home
Baby would you come on home?

Cause when I said that I loved you honey
I knew it from the very start
And when I said that I loved you honey
I knew that she would break my heart
But why, why, why, why

Cause when I said that I loved you honey
I knew it from the very start
And when I said that I loved you honey
I knew that she would break my heart
But why, why, why, why
