How can I say I love you,
Now that you've said I love you?
And how can I say I need you,
Now that you've said I need you?
And how can I say I want you,
Now that you've said I want you,
Now that you've said
Everything I said to you
To somebody new

There goes my baby,
Heart on a string
There goes my lover,
My everything

I hear you crying now,
What can I do?
You threw my heart away,
You made me blue

So, how can I say I love you,
Now that you've said I love you?
And how can I say I need you,
Now that you've said I need you?
And how can I say I want you,
Now that you've said I want you,
Now that you've said
Everything I said to you
To somebody new

I wish it was yesterday,
Wish then you knew
Just like I used to say,
"my love is true."

I hear you crying now,
What can I do?
You threw my heart away,
You made me blue

So, how can I say I love you,

Now that you've said I love you?
And how can I say I need you,
Now that you've said I need you?
And how can I say I want you,
Now that you've said I want you,
Now that you've said
Everything I said to you
To somebody new
