Dust, Dust, Dust, Dust
Dust, Dust, Dust, Dust, D-Dust

Got so close to love
I can almost taste the kill
barely close enough
but I could not make a deal

Got so close to love
I can almost taste the kill
barley close enough
but I just can't close the deal

I was snow white till I started to drift baby I didn't care, till I saw you there and your manner made my animal kick but I just didn't dare, call me crazy yeah everything I ever had to lose is standing in the way of me and you panic built these walls in front of me and nothing but my heart can set me free man get up

we're gonna start this fire
tangled up
'cause I know I should
can't get up
watch the flames go higher
tangled up
we're gonna need more wood

man get up
we're gonna start this fire
tangled up
'cause I know I should
can't get up
tangled up
we're gonna need more wood

I can almost taste the kill
barely close enough
but I could not make a deal

Got so close to love
I can almost taste the kill
barely close enough
but I just can't close the deal

Got so close to love
barely close enough
but I could not make a deal

I can almost taste the kill
barely close enough
but I just can't close the deal

Dust, Dust, Dust, D-Dust

I confess I'm in a real big mess with the guy I love but I can't say yes now my only bet is to take a plane ride west
?cause I can't regret what I ain't done yet

Got so close to love
I can almost taste the kill

barely close enough
but I could not make a deal

You're so close to love
I can almost taste the kill
barely close enough
but I just can't close the deal X2

Guy with the beautiful stare, hands off Guy with the terrible hair, back off
Dude with the look in your eye, leave it
Man with the beautiful ride, feel it

Man with the chemical stare, hands off
Guy with the terrible hair, back off
Man with the beautiful ride, feel it
