I can't support you
You know it and there's nothing we can do
I'd love to know who
Would clean you up and make your dreams come true

I wanna be that girl
Who runs a thousand miles
Don't wanna be your friend I hope you come prepared

So don't pretend
That you're an angel and we're just good friends
I'll count to ten
And if you're lucky then you'll see me again
I'll read your signs
Your bodys talkin but your heart is blind
And in your eyes
I see the fire burning through your eyes

It's your dinamite
