My dedication is to my art
No education will buy my car
Too much temptation and help too far away
We dress in black, we won't be light
We're so depressed we wear our shades at night
With our distress, we might just fade away
Away, away, away, away

We wanna party
But we got no soul
We wanna start it
Blow our senses out of control
We wanna make it
But we got no way
We're gonna hate it
But we might just fake it today
We wanna party
But we got no love
We wanna party
But we got no love
We wanna party
But we got no love
We wanna party
But we got no love

I'm disillusioned with my dreams
Got life confused with my designer jeans
Hey what's the use, with help too far away
We're on the list, in every line
We're anarchists if we can get the time
Without the shit we might just fade away
Away, away, away, away

We wanna party
But we got no soul
We wanna start it
Blow our senses out of control
We wanna make it
But we got no way
We're gonna hate it
But we might just fake it today
We wanna party

But we got no love
We wanna party
But we got no love
We wanna party
But we got no love
We wanna party
But we got no love

We wanna party
But we got no soul
We wanna start it
Blow our senses out of control
We wanna make it
But we got no way
We're gonna hate it
But we might just fake it today
We wanna party
But we got no love
We wanna party
But we got no love
We wanna party
But we got no love
We wanna party
But we got no love
We wanna party
But we got no love
We wanna party
But we got no love
We wanna party
But we got no love
We wanna party
But we got no love
We wanna party
But we got no love
