Did you honestly think that this is all it takes
To be my boyfriend, can't you hear my heart break
Can't you tell how your silence is making me feel
When your always away even though your right here

Everytime that I try to discuss what's going on Everytime that you don't wanna tell me what is wrong
Feels like I keep giving all to you
But I never get anything back

All I hear is my echo echo echo
Echo echo echo,
Echo echo echo, oh oh x2

I'm running out of very bad things to say
I don't wanna give up but this is not ok

Everytime that you're turning you're back to me in bed
Everytime that I can't figure what is in your head
Feels like I keep giving all to you
But I never get anything back

All I hear is my echo echo echo
Echo echo echo,
Echo echo echo, oh oh x2

Why don't you put all your cards on the table
Can't read your mind I'm just not able
To keep a smile when it feels like your letting go

Don't wanna keep on turning
In my bed 'cause my heart is churning
For a sign that I'm really not on my own

All I hear is my echo echo echo
Echo echo echo,
Echo echo echo, oh oh x3
