english translation

in your smile that's like a spring day, the whole world gets brighter it makes me dream again on the day where the sun sparkles, i hold your hand and walk in sync with your footsteps when i sometimes walk ahead and suddenly look back that face that looks at me is so eye-blinding

* when i hear the sound of spring coming, i walk on the path with the bloomed flowers when the rainy summer comes, i walk as i see the rainbow when autumn passes and winter comes, with the warmth from our hands we walk together " how great is your love i always waited for a love that resembles the sky to be given to me on the day where the stars twinkle, i walk to the melody of the birds your seasons that go round and round, repeating like a secret in that unchanging love, my eyes are blinded

* repeat

you became a bright light to me, who was exhausted by the world
even if winter comes at the end of this narrow road we walk together

if you would hold my hand, to me, this rough world will be like spring days
how great is your love
