SNSD 'Promise' Lyrics (English)

Indescribable pain spreads throughout the whole body
though the daily life that I've dreamed look me up.

I want to be alone sometimes and so many attention makes it hard.

When I want to breathe swamped in an ordinary life

What about us? What about love?

This brief phrase raises me up.

You cuddle me in your bosom warmly.

When glaring lights are turned off, a day goes by. I cannot control my sloping shoulders and empty mind.

You knock my mind I was hiding like a miracle in dark hours.

You light me up with your bright again.

What about us? What about love?

This brief phrase raises me up.

You cuddle me in your bosom warmly.

Only a step closer to me and a bit more warmly.

We pinkie swear that we're together forever.

Promise to you.

Just remember this only though I can't tell how thankful I am.

You make me laugh. You're my love.

What about us? What about love?

This brief phrase raises me up.

You cuddle me in your bosom warmly.

Only a step closer to me and a bit more warmly.

We pinkie swear that we're together forever.

Promise to you.

Promise to you! Promise to you!
