english translation

boy, i see you walking by everyday so, just stop in the name of love and just say yes say yes say yay yay yay yes when i see the sky filled with shooting stars there is a wish that i think of am i the only excited one because of my longing heart?

(stop)
even in this dizzy world, if only i can be by your side i can follow you anywhere honestly, because i'm scared, i'm not enough, i'm worried that the scars will hurt do you know that i can't easily express this painful heart?

* can you feel my heart can you read my mind i already confessed to you with my eyes i will open my long-closed heart for ten seconds so don't hesitate and just say yes

(oh baby give it to me right now) in this changing world baby if you hug me tight in your embrace, maybe i'll always be with you are you having a hard time? are you tired? do you have a lot of scars from love? i know your painful heart that you can't easily express

* repeat

oh, take responsibility for my face growing hotter baby i'll be waiting- please tell me that you love me baby say iyeyeah

* repeat

so don't hesitate and just
