Picture a face with eyes of blue
The kind you would die to gaze into
I want you near me,
I need to feel your hand in mine
Wondering if we were just a way of killing time,
Was it just another waste of time?

Imagine a love without the pain
I feel so scared to hurt again
I need to see you,
I feel so far away from you
I wouldn't miss you,
Oh, if we'd only had some time,
But then I'd know if you
Were really mine

If you have a change of heart,
I won't be the first to fall
And if you ever change your mind,
I won't be as blind as love,
I wouldn't be as blind at all

And I need to see you,
If it's to only break the spell
I'll go on without you,
Then let me be a little on guard,
Because I know we took our love too far

Da da da da...
