I was sent here by the star
You wished upon last night
Believe me

I was told to hold you tight
Not let you out of sight
Believe me

Your star told me
Just where I'd find you
That's how I knew your address
It told me to tiptoe up behind you
In answer to your S.O.S.

I was told to place my lips
Right up against your lips
Like this, dear

I was told that in the dark
You'd welcome the remark
Let's kiss, dear

I was sent here by the star
You wished upon last night
And strange, but true

It was the star
The very, very star
That I had wished upon for you

I was sent here by the star
You wished upon last night
And strange, but true

It was the star
The very, very star
That I had wished upon for you
