Ooh, ohh, ooooohh
Its trey and I'm this song, I'm on this song

You looking at me girl with those big o' pretty eyes
And the world's most beautiful smile I just can't say no Gotta show you love for making me feel so good inside
You can bet a nigga gone ride, fasho, fasho And if you wanna see the world I'm gone buy you a map
You know, just show me where you wanna go ooh Cause there ain't nothing in the world I wouldn't do for my baby, my baby

If you ask me what I want I just wanna make you happy
I just wanna make you happy,
I just wanna make you happy
you ask me what I want
I just wanna make you happy
I just wanna make you happy
I just wanna make you happy girl,

And the way you hold it down and keep it real Man I never met a chick so trill
It blows my mind
I see you got a little thug in you too And girl I like that And it's for you I stay on my grind
So if you ask me for the world
I would ask god to give it, to me Is there anything else you need because there ain't nothing in the world I wouldn't do for my baby, my baby

If you ask me what I want I just wanna make you happy
I just wanna make you happy,
I just wanna make you happy
you ask me what I want
I just wanna make you happy
I just wanna make you happy
I just wanna make you happy girl,

And I just wanna see a smile on your face, that means anything you want or need baby I'm gone get it for you, yeah and I just got to let you know, you look better then my old chicks, I'm going to make sure you stay brand new, brand new, brand new, brand new, brand new, brand new, brand new, so If you ask me what I want I just wanna make you happy
I just wanna make you happy, I
I just wanna make you happy, I if you ask me what I want
I just wanna make you happy, I
I just wanna make you happy, baby I,
I just wanna make you happy girl,

anything you need I,
I just wanna make you happy, baby I,
I just wanna make you happy, anything to see that pretty smile upon your face, I I just wanna make you happy, baby, I
I just wanna make you happy girl,
I just wanna see you happy girl, ooh, yeah
