She's making you run, and you'll never understand How she smiles whenever you cry She's a bold little girl in a woman disguise, still you never believe
How she controls you with her lies

Ah, how she cons you in the dead of darkest night She comes without no warning, and you fall against the knife

Of a lethal lover, nobody breaks away, from a lethal lover, no ways to play her game

You're running for cover, or you're running for your life
Oh, you ride the edge of the blade Like a suicide mission and the ultimate pact, still you never believe
She really don't care if you live or you die

Oh, you got to wake up, and open up your eyes She comes without no warning, then you fall against the knife

lover, no ways to play the game

From a lethal lover, she burns you to the bone, lethal love

Solo

Oh, you got to wake up, and open up your eyes
She comes without no warning, then you fall against
the knife

lover, no ways to play her game
From a lethal lover, she burns you to the bone Lethal lover, she ain't gonna let you go, oh whoa
One love
