Good bye forever sweet love
Iâ€™m tired of acting the part
Too late for us to go on
Just fooling each other this way
Iâ€™ve got to leave you today
Each one to go his own way

I tried to give you my bed
But ended up losing the thread
We nearly made it but something delayed it
Now itâ€™s too late for turning back
And for the last time, yes for the last time
Iâ€™m acting the part
We nearly made it but something delayed it
Now itâ€™s too late for turning back
And for the last time, yes for the last time
Iâ€™m acting the part

Try to be strong, face the facts
Life can be easy relax
Try to see my point of view
Love will be yours soon anew
Cry like a baby and forget
Life isnâ€™t leaving you yet

I tried to give you my bed
But ended up losing the thread
We nearly made it but something delayed it
Now itâ€™s too late for turning back
And for the last time, yes for the last time
Iâ€™m acting the part
We nearly made it but something delayed it
Now itâ€™s too late for turning back
And for the last time, yes for the last time
Iâ€™m acting the part
Iâ€™m acting the part
I know Iâ€™m acting the part
I know Iâ€™m acting the part
Iâ€™m acting the part
Yeah Iâ€™m acting the part
