Come back and finish what you started
And don't leave me hanging on
Come back and finish what you started
Don't leave me hanging on, no

You planted seeds of love in my heart
With all the tender words you said at the start
But love is something you shouldn't begin
If you're not gonna see it through to the end

Come back and finish what you started
Oh, and don't leave me hanging on
Mmm, come back and finish what you started
And don't leave me hanging on, no

A taste of honey is a dangerous thing
After it's gone the memories cling
Just like the promise I heard you repeat
That you left undone and incomplete

Come back and finish what you started
Ooh, and don't leave me hanging on
Ooh, come back and finish what you started
And don't leave me hanging on

Baby come back, ooh, ooh
Don't leave me
Baby come back, come back
Don't you know I love you
Baby come back, come back

Come back and finish what you started
Don't leave me hanging on
Come back and finish what you started
Ooh, don't leave me hanging on

A taste of honey is a dangerous thing
After it's gone the memories cling
Just like the promise I heard you repeat
That you left undone and incomplete

Come back and finish what you started

Ooh, and don't leave me hanging on
Come back and finish what you started
And don't leave me hanging on

Come back and finish what you started
And don't leave me hanging on
Come back and finish what you started
Don't leave me hanging on, no
Don't you know I need you beside me
Come right back and let your love at me
Finish what you started
And don't leave me hanging on
